THE 1950 MUMMY CASE

UNIVERSITY SCHOOL
Carbondale, Illinois

DEDICATION

In sincere appreciation for his inspiration to every student who has come under his guiding influence whether in class or in extra curricular activities, such as the science club and year book; for his outstanding leadership as a member of the faculty of the University School, where he has been known always to insist upon high ideals and standards; for his fine personality which always makes him esteemed and respected wherever he goes; and for his friendship which is evident in the way he helps each student and in his sympathy for those in difficulty, we dedicate this book to Chalmer Gross.

Members of the University School Chapter have had a good year: Mary Lou Heatherly served as state vice-president; Marilyn Wakeland held the office of Section II Recreation chairman; and most of the members worked eagerly on degrees.

This club gave a Gay Nineties party, published a chapter newsletter, sent two delegates to camp, gave a mother-daughter banquet, attended the rally at Ziegler, installed officers at Herrin, conferred degrees at Carterville, attended the House of Delegates meeting, voted for its most active member, honored the chapter mother, and worked on a publicity book.

Mummy Case Staff

The Mummy Case Staff and their sponsor met regularly every Monday afternoon from three to five o'clock; they worked many other afternoons in order to publish the 1950 Yearbook.

This is the second year that the staff has used offset print; thus the members had to mount all vari-typed material in addition to the pictures.

"U" Club

The 'U' Club is an organization of boys who have won varsity letter awards in any of the major sports. The officers are elected by a majority vote to serve for one year. The purpose of the club is to keep records for the school of all athletic events and to plan parties in the gym; these consist of recreational games and other social activities. As a group the club attends outstanding sporting events in the area and promotes the spirit of sportsmanship throughout the school. The club members not only perform a service to the school, but try to set examples for younger athletes who will some day be in charge of the club.

Foreign Language Club

Each year students of the foreign language classes join together in the Phi Lambda Kappa Club to exchange ideas, share with each other the background culture of French, Latin, and Spanish, and enjoy fellowship.

Outstanding programs this year have included the authentic Roman banquet, a Roman wedding, the Christmas caroling in foreign languages with use of the new Phi Lambda Kappa song books, the Valentine party with songs, dances, and pinatas, a play, The Labors of Hercules on Television, and, finally, a Roman funeral in the spring.

Egyptian Experimenters

As one enters the north door of Allyn the familiar odor of formaldehyde, animals, and chemical compounds greets him. Here is unmistakably the home of the Egyptian Experimenters. They spend each Monday evening here hearing talks from prominent members of Southern's faculty, having discussions and demonstrations, and making projects.

The Club's enthusiasm reached its greatest height in the spring when each member knew that his project would receive an 'outstanding' in the Illinois Junior Academy of Science meeting.

Basketball

Coach Johnson had a successful beginning as basketball coach this year which was his first at University School. His team caused all University School to rejoice about the victory over the Carbondale Community High School. For the first time in more than a decade University School won the game between the two local schools. This year's team was a general improvement over that of last year. When this book went to press, University School had won 4 games and had lost 13; last year the team won only 2 and lost 19. There were seven seniors on the team this year: Gene Rehn, Jack Harris, Melvin Ebbs, Raymond Lacy, Bill Turner, Archie Reinhardt, and Herbert Rieke.

Junior High Basketball

To date Coach Stotlar has succeeded in bringing the Junior High basketball squad through with flying colors. However, due to the fact that their season is only half over as this book goes to press, a full account of their activities is not available. It looks as if they will have a good year. So far they have come through with seven wins and only five losses. One of the former includes the first game of the district tournament.

The team has an average height of five feet and five inches. At present the leading six men are Ebbie Miller, R.K. Dillinger, Lynn Morrison, Donald Bryant, Warner Widdows, and Russell Martin.
